

“Terms and conditions of booking”

Dear parent/guardian,

Please review the following terms and conditions that apply to all bookings made through our website or by other means. If you have any questions, please contact us before booking.

- Liability: Youth Football Academy is not liable for any personal injury, loss, or damage that may occur during our football classes.
- Payment: Full payment of the course fee is required for your child to attend our sessions.
- Media Release: You agree that your child may be filmed or photographed and that these images may be used for publicity purposes.
- Weather Cancellations: We aim to hold sessions rain or shine, as long as conditions are safe for children. However, if a session is cancelled due to unsafe weather conditions, waterlogged fields or other circumstances beyond our control, the session will not be rescheduled or refunded. Youth Football Academy will make every effort to compensate for the missed session.
- Refunds: If you book a course and decide not to attend for personal reasons once the course has started, Youth Football Academy is not obligated to issue a refund. Hence, we offer a trial session to help you determine if our program is suitable for your child.
- Code of Conduct: Children are expected to listen to the coaches, shake hands after committing a foul, and apologize if instructed by the coaches. Parents and guardians are expected to be respectful towards each other, the coaches, and other children. Please refrain from giving coaching instructions during sessions and just encourage.

We may update these terms and conditions from time to time.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Youth Football Academy
